

Military Vehicle Trust Convoy Visits Little Barrington

The convoy from the North Oxfordshire Military Vehicle Trust is due to end its winter run at Village Farm, Little Barrington on Saturday 5 March 2020.

The MVT is a charitable organisation which is committed to conserving ex-Military Vehicles. The North Oxford and Cotswold branch of the organisation is made up of a collection of enthusiasts who share an interest in historic military vehicles. In addition, the MVT dedicates much time and charitable funds in the preservation of local military history, honouring local events, supporting veterans and fellow classic car enthusiasts.

Anyone interested is most welcome to view the convoy and learn about their fabulous machines, that will be parked in and around Village Farm from about 1300.

This is a private event restricted to residents of Great and Little Barrington

Visitors view these vehicles and visit the site at their own risk

Children must be supervised; dogs on leads please